

To Whom it May Concern,

Kim Baert-McGee has worked for Bright Horizons since September 2006. Recently she accepted a position as Music teacher where she took the initiative to create a music curriculum for our preschool.

She is an energetic, conscientious, and reliable employee of Bright Horizons. She is an asset to our company and preschool. I highly recommend her to teach music at any school.

Sincerely,

Patricia Campo

Patricia Campo
Director of Bright Horizons
Child Center @ Motorola